ALEKS for MAT-144

ALEKS is the learning management system where you will perform much of your work for this system and access most of your assignments for this course. Be sure to read the "Getting Started" directions on how to register for ALEKS.

What is ALEKS?

ALEKS stands for Assessment and Learning in Knowledge Spaces. ALEKS is an adaptive learning system. Think of it as a human tutor designed to help you learn math. ALEKS uses artificial intelligence to assess your knowledge and then creates an individualized learning plan that guides you to work on material you need to learn.
